Dear Mum

The war has just started I feel OK but getting sick.

It is hard to see because of the gun fire and the smoke.

I feel sad and scared. I want to come home soon.

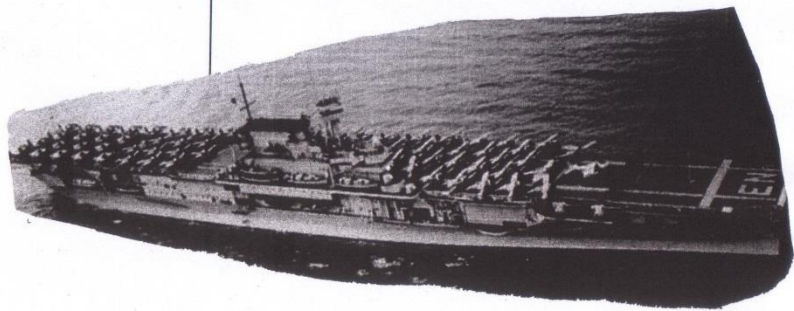

From your loving son
Gordon.

USS Enterprise (CV 6) was ordered stricken from the Navy list and sold for scrap Oct. 2, 1956. Enterprise was in more action in World War II than any other carrier. She had been decommissioned following the war and laid up at Bayonne, N.J. This image is from April 12, 1939. [80-G-463246; National Archives]

Dear Jessica Nicole

We have won the London marathon, we have been running for hours and my legs are killing me. I am so glad no bombs went off like the terror blast in America, we will be home in a couple of hours. We are just celebrating our win in the pub in Wales called the German Sailors. All the women are staring at us to think are they the ones who run.

Dear

MUM Remember when

I said I would take over the world?
well now I am. I have taken over the French, Dutch, Belgium and Russia.

I am going to win the war. I killed
1 million Jewish people. I grew my mustache
13 centimeters. I miss you. How are you and the family?
